

Achyut Chetan: Bio-note/CV

Achyut Chetan did his Graduation in 2003 and Masters in 2005 from the Department of English and Other Modern European Languages, Visva-Bharati where he taught for a year in 2007 before joining as an Assistant Professor of English at the Sido Kanhu Murmu University, Dumka, Jharkhand in 2008. He continues to teach there with a commitment to pedagogy as a means for social transformation in marginal areas.

He has submitted his doctoral research on 'The Missing Mothers of the Indian Constitution and the Gender Politics of its Framing' at Visva-Bharati. In the course of his work, he has received the Sir Ratan Tata Trust Fellowship at the School of Women's Studies, Jadavpur University and was a Fulbright Visiting Fellow at the Department of History at Columbia University, New York. He has delivered invited lectures on his work at Columbia University, New York; Brooklyn College, CUNY; University of Texas at Austin; and Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi.