

Department of History Guidelines for the BA Dissertation

All third year undergraduate students in the History Department are required to write a dissertation in their final (i.e. the sixth) semester. The work, including research and writing, will extend over that semester alone. The dissertation must be a student's own independent work and must be based on a critical reading of primary and secondary sources. A successful dissertation is one that is primarily driven by primary sources. The purpose of the dissertation is for students to demonstrate the skills they have acquired through their courses and apply them to producing original research of their own.

All students are mandated to take serious note of the following points concerning their absolute commitment to engaging in honest academic practice:

- The Department of History follows a zero tolerance policy towards plagiarism.
- If any student is in doubt about what constitutes plagiarism, they must consult with his/her assigned supervisor.
- Broadly put, plagiarism consists of any practice that involves passing off someone else's words or ideas as one's own.
- The penalties for plagiarism in the submission of a dissertation, as the departmental policy applicable from 02.03.2020 onwards outlines, are as follows:
 - If any member of the department detects a case of plagiarism in any document, he or she shall apply the penalties delineated below:
 - i. Level 0: Similarities upto 10%: 10 percent of marks awarded will be deducted.
 - ii. Level 1: Similarities above 10% to 25%: 25 percent of marks awarded will be deducted.
 - iii. Level 2: Similarities above 25% will get 'zero' marks.
 - There will be no option for review.

Word limit and format for the dissertation

- The length of the dissertation must be of a minimum of 5,000 and a maximum of 6,000 words, NOT including footnotes, the bibliography, the glossary, a list of abbreviations used, and all appendices.
- Please make a note, at the end of the dissertation, of the precise word count of the document you submit.
- The dissertation may comprise two chapters (not including the introduction and conclusion) OR may be a single, long essay, with an introduction, clearly separated sections in the main body, and a conclusion.
- All citations should be included as footnotes, not as in-text or endnote citations.
- The footnotes and bibliography should follow the rules of the Chicago Manual of Style.

- A list of abbreviations used in the dissertation, the glossary and list of maps/images/tables (if any) must be provided at the beginning with page breaks between each of these.
- The main body of your dissertation must be type-written, double-spaced, in Times New Roman 12 point size font, with appropriate margins (usually the default in most word processing programmes) and with page numbers included.
- The footnotes must be single-spaced in Times New Roman 10 point size font.
- Please note that your dissertation must be submitted in TWO separate formats.
 - First, you must hand in two printed hard copies in spiral binding to the History Department office. No handwritten copy of the dissertation will be accepted during the final submission.
 - Second, in addition to the hard copies, you must also present a soft (electronic) copy to the Secretary, Department of History (sec.his@presiuniv.ac.in) sent as an emailed attachment.
 - The deadline for submission of both formats is the same and is indicated below.
- Images, if used in the dissertation, may be inserted either in the body of the text or as plates in the appendix. All images must be numbered and the corresponding number must be entered in the main body of the text. All images should be captioned clearly, indicating their source.
- Videos/moving images, if used, should be submitted on a CD. Please ensure that this CD also carries your name, title of dissertation and your roll number.
- The order of the various sections of the dissertation is as follows:
 - a) Title/ cover Page
 - b) Certificate Pages
 - c) Abstract of the dissertation in not more than 600 words
 - d) Content Page
 - e) List of Abbreviations
 - f) Glossary
 - g) List of Maps/ Images/ Tables (if any)
 - h) Acknowledgement
 - i) Introduction
 - j) Chapters or Sections (without page breaks)if there are no chapters
 - k) Conclusion
 - l) Images/ Maps/ Tables (if used and not inserted in main body of text)
 - m) Bibliography (Primary materials, Secondary Readings, English and Vernacular sources have to be listed separately)
- Sample cover pages of the dissertation and certificates will be sent to the dissertation writers before the final deadline for submission.
- Abstract for the BA dissertation: The abstract should state the historical problem the dissertation explores, describe the methods and procedures used to investigate this problem, and elaborate the main results or conclusions reached. The abstract must not exceed six hundred (600) words in length and should be typed and 1.5 spaced. The heading of the abstract is the word “ABSTRACT” in all capital letters, centred within the margins at the top of the page. Do not number the page on which the abstract appears, and do not include the abstract in the word limit for the main dissertation.

Choosing topics and the process of supervisor assignment

- Early in their sixth semester, the deadline being indicated below, students will be asked to submit two proposed subjects of research, listed in order of preference.
- In proposing their topics, students MUST bear in mind the following:
 1. The topics proposed must be on two separate subjects of examination sufficiently differentiated from each other. While every effort will be made to accommodate your first choice, this cannot be guaranteed, as the department is guided by the need to distribute supervision evenly among members of faculty.
 2. Ensure that the proposed topics are feasible (given the time and sources available) and have the potential to contribute original knowledge on the subject.
 3. The dissertation topic must be a student's own proposal and must be based on a critical reading of primary and secondary sources.
 4. The words used in the proposed topics (as well as in the title of the final dissertation) should be selected carefully to represent as accurately as possible the subject content.
 5. The proposed topics must be accompanied by a narrative in which the dissertation topic is clearly defined. The latter must include an explanation of the significance of the proposed work, the methodology to be employed, and the substantially unique historical or historiographical argument that will be explored.
 6. A preliminary bibliography of primary and secondary works must be included.
 7. Vague and plagiarised proposal(s) will be returned to the student for revision and this revision process will continue until the department is satisfied that its objections have been satisfactorily addressed.
- Please note that students are to indicate preferred topics of research, NOT to choose supervisors.
- As soon as possible after the submission of the choices of research topics, the department will announce a list of the supervisors assigned to each student.
- In some cases, if deemed either appropriate or necessary, student projects may be assigned joint supervisors.
- No switching of supervisors will be permitted barring exceptional circumstances and then only with the express permission of the department's BA Dissertation Coordinator.
- Please note that the supervisor's role is to serve as a guide; the dissertation is a student's own independent project. This means that it is the student who must frame her/his own hypotheses, research the subject accordingly, craft their own argument, and posit it in writing.
- Students must, however, consult their respective dissertation supervisors regularly.
- While the supervisor will read drafts of the dissertation, there will be only one reading of each of these. It is the student's responsibility to incorporate the suggestions made by their supervisor. There will be no second reading of drafts.
- Marking the dissertation
- Please note that in order to be eligible for the dissertation to be examined/assessed, every student must have 75% attendance in the weekly supervision meetings indicated in the departmental time-table. Each supervisor will mark attendance in the register provided.

- The BA dissertation is worth a total of 50 marks.
- All written assignments (typed) submitted for evaluation will be subjected to a plagiarism check either through a standard plagiarism software or through other means and the standard plagiarism policy of the department will apply (as stated in the Minutes of the Departmental Meeting dated 02.03.2020 & 16.03.2021).
- After the final submission of the dissertation (HIST06DSE4) to the Secretary, Department of History, on the scheduled date, the department will generate an Urkund/TurnItIn report on similarities/plagiarism. This report will be forwarded to the concerned Supervisor(s), the Dissertation Coordinator and the Dissertation Committee.
 - Plagiarism detected, beyond this report, by the Supervisor or the Dissertation Committee through means other than the above-mentioned plagiarism software programmes will be subjected to the same penalties as prescribed by the department's policy.
- The supervisor will be responsible for awarding 50% of the total marks for the submitted written assignment (i.e. she/he will provide a mark out of a total of 25 marks).
- The remaining 50% of the marks (i.e. a mark out of the remaining total of 25 marks) will be awarded by the Dissertation Committee following an oral examination of the student's work.
- Therefore, in addition to submitting their written work, each student will be required to participate in an oral examination of her/his BA Dissertation (HIST06DSE4) by the department's Dissertation Committee at a time scheduled by the latter. The dissertation abstract will be made available to the Dissertation Committee before the scheduled date for the oral examination.
- The duration of the oral examination of the dissertation will be approximately 20 minutes. The purpose of this exercise is to train students to present lucidly the main findings of their research, defend their thesis, and to hone their skills of oral argumentation. These form an important objective of the Department of History's pedagogical programme. As part of the presentation, the student may use audio-visual aids (such as PowerPoint or other applications).
- In the course of the oral examination, the Dissertation Committee members may require revisions to the dissertation; these must be made by the student within the time indicated by the Committee.
- The Dissertation Committee will consist of two faculty members of the Department of History, one faculty member from another department nominated by the Head of Department, and the Dissertation Coordinator. To prevent any conflict of interest, the Head of Department will substitute for any one of the three members of the Committee from the Department of History whose supervisees may be appearing for the oral examination.

Timetable for dissertation

- 23.01.2024: Students must submit two proposed topics of research in type-written form to the Secretary, Department of History (sec.his@presuiv.ac.in) and cc. the Dissertation Coordinator.

- 07.02.2024: List of supervisors assigned to be posted by the History Department.
- 16.02.2024: Students must submit a hypothesis, a working bibliography of sources (primary and secondary) consulted so far and a detailed chapter outline. They should anticipate having to modify both the bibliography and the outline as they continue to progress through research and writing.
- 28.03.2024: (Thursday, by 3 pm): Submission of a draft of dissertation.
- 23.04.2024: (Tuesday, by 3 pm): Submission of the final hard and soft copies of the dissertation to the Office of the Secretary, Department of History (sec.his@presiuniv.ac.in), cc. to the assigned supervisor.
- 30.04.2024: (Tuesday): Viva Voce

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- The department reiterates that any dissertation with plagiarized content will be penalized as stated above without any option of a review.
- The format outlined above—such as footnoting conventions, font, margins etc. — must be adhered to.
- Every dissertation must adhere to the word limit.
- The Head of Department will not countersign the dissertation certificate for final submission of dissertations without the prior signature of the respective supervisor.
- No dissertation will be accepted in the office of the department without the signature of both the supervisor and the Head of Department.
- As the announced departmental policy states, the last date for submission must be adhered to strictly. If any student fails to submit his/her sessional papers(s) within the due date, his/her papers will be marked as “NOT SUBMITTED”. In such a situation the student may appeal to the Hon’ble Vice Chancellor, who may, at her discretion, allow the student to complete such sessional papers as a backlog.
