17-18 April 2018
www.religionsociety.com

Souvik Mondal of Presidency University, India, attended the Eighth International Conference on Religion and Spirituality in Society as an in-person participant. Souvik Mondal presented the paper, Politics of Karma.

Souvik Mondal played an important role in the International Conference on Religion and Spirituality in Society, which sets out to describe, analyze, and interpret the role of religion and spirituality in society. The bases of this endeavor are cross-disciplinary. The intellectual project is neutral with respect to the agendas of particular religions or explicit counterpoints to religion such as agnosticism or atheism. These media are intended to provide spaces for careful, scholarly reflection and open dialogue.

Subject: participation in workshop, 4th annual Middle Bengali retreat

Dear Mr. Sandip Kumar Mandal,

I am writing on behalf of the organizing committee to confirm that you participated to the 4th Middle Bengali retreat held at Bab Zouina, Douar Sbiti, Morocco, from August 4th to 12th, 2019.

The retreat aims to bring together scholars and advanced students of Bengali to read and discuss Middle Bengali texts. We read a variety of texts from various periods and genres of premodern Bengali literature. We hope that participants benefited from the session leaders' expertise and that the session leaders benefited from the participants' feedback.

We are grateful for the reading session that led on Śākta padāvalī on Sunday, August 11th.

The format of the retreat was as follows: each day, three ninety-minute reading sessions were conducted. The readings covered a wide range of Middle Bengali texts and a variety of genres (narrative, lyric, didactic) and periods (from the Bengali Sultanate to late Mughal/early colonial times). For those unfamiliar with Middle Bengali language, a general introduction on grammar, prosody and literary genres have been provided.

Here is a link to the retreat's website, where you will find details about previous retreats: <https://voices.uchicago.edu/middlebengali/>.

Thank you for your participation and we hope that you continue to contribute to the advancement of the study of Middle Bengali literature through your future research work.

Best regards,
